End-Of-Life (EOL) Announcement

Date of EOL announcement:	22 August 2023
Labkotec EOL procedure number:	EOLA2303-EN

Dear Customer,

This is the final announcement about the discontinuation of the production of Labkotec idOil-20-series alarm devices for oil separators.

The last manufacturing batch of idOil-20 has been made and deliveries will continue long as the stock lasts. Labkotec requests the customers to place last orders for idOil-20 alarms as soon as possible. As the number of units available is limited orders will be served in order of receiving them.

New Labkotec idSET-34 alarm devices are available as replacements for discontinued idOil-20 alarms. Other idOil-series products are not affected and are still available. Including idOil-30, idOil-D30, and idOil SOLAR in all variants.
